

Dear Holder of GDRs:

JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as depositary ("JPMorgan" or the "Depositary"), refers to the deposit agreement dated December 11, 2018, as amended (as so amended, the "Deposit Agreement"), between JPMorgan and Global Ports Investments plc (the "Company"), relating to Regulation S GDRs (CUSIP # 37951Q202) and Rule 144A GDRs (CUSIP# 37951Q103) issued in respect of the Company's Shares. All capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined herein, shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Deposit Agreement.

Consistent with prior notices and announcements, JPMorgan wishes to remind all Holders that the Company has terminated the Deposit Agreement and that, in connection therewith and in compliance with the provisions of the Deposit Agreement, JPMorgan is in the process of (x) cancelling all outstanding GDRs, (y) instructing its Custodian to deliver all Deposited Property (including, without limitation, the Deposited Shares) to the Company along with a general stock power covering such Deposited Shares and instruments of transfer covering any other securities or property held as Deposited Property, and (z) providing the Company with a copy of the Register as revised to reflect those owners of GDRs then known to the Depositary. In accordance with the provisions of the Deposit Agreement, upon receipt of such Deposited Property and the revised Register, the Company is required to deliver appropriate documentation to each person reflected on such revised Register evidencing the transfer to such person of the Shares and other Deposited Property previously represented by the GDRs reflected on such revised Register.

Holders are advised that upon the Depositary's compliance with (x), (y) and (z) above, the Depositary and its agents will cease to have any obligations under the Deposit Agreement and/or the GDRs.
